Juneau Librarian Represents American Library Association in Alaska in the "Books for Everybody Plan."

Mrs. F. A. Metcalf, librarian of the Public Library at Juneau has in Alaska for the American Library Association.

This movement is a nation-wide of library service so that the miland its possessions may have the opportunity for obtaining reading matter which is not now within their reach. It is also designed to promote the habit of reading and universal self-education through books and libraries and create a public sentiment that will ensure adequate support for all-existing libraries and cause others to be established where they do not now exist.

. This enlarged program is a direct outgrowth of the war-time service of the American Library Association which circulated more than 7,000,000 books among men of the United States forces at home, overseas, and on the sea. The peace time project will promote extension of book service.

To carry out the provisions of the project, a fund of $2,000,000 is grade will be widened and also at being raised by librarians, library mile 3. trustees, and friends of libraries without recourse to the usual intensive public campaign.

It took but one ballot of the jury in the case of the United States against F. J. Furnivall to reach a decision that he was not guilty of embezzlement as charged in the indictment returned recently by the grand jury. The charge was that the defendant had converted to his own use certain bonds of the Alaska Trust and Investment company. The defendant admitted having had them but claimed that he held them as trustee of the Alaska Investment company and that he later turned them over to the receivers of the Alaska Trust and Investment company.-Chronicle.

MUSEUM SOON TO BE OPENED IN JUNEAU

Under the auspices of the Alaska Historical society there is soon to be opened in Juneau a museum containing many thousands of interesting articles and curios from all parts of Alaska and covering the Territory from the earliest date of settlement. Articles of incorporation are being prepared by the society and will be filed with the Territorial Secretary within a short time. The incorporators are Governor Thomas Riggs, Dr. Daniel S. Neuman and Rev. A. P. Kashevar-

Several thousand articles that will be placed on display are now stored away in boxes at the governor's office. Many others are in Washington, D. C., being those put on display at the World's Fair in St. Louis in 1905 and which have been stored in Washington since that time. Others are stored at Sitka and will be taken to Juneau in the near future. It is the purpose of the society to aid in the preservation of places of interest in all parts of the Territory, one such being Chief Shakes' cld community house at Wrangell. Contributions in the form of exhibits for the museum will be sought all over Alaska, due credit to be given to the donor of each article.

Always conservative, always fearless, it has fought for high ideals and won its way to a place of prestige and power; and the guiding spirit is, and was, Senator Harding. There has never been a strike or threatened strike in the Star office. His employees found him always liberal and ever generous, and they love him as a brother. After he had established his paper on a firm foundation he organized a stock company, distributing shares to each of his employees and he and they still own it.

> Mr. Harding is closely identified with many large business enterprises. Since he took over the Star, Marion has grown from a country town of four thousand inhabitants of thirty thousand, and he has been a prime factor in this industrial development. He has been a "booster" for every new industry which has located there, taking shares of stock in each to the limit of his ability. Because of his recognized business sagacity he has been made gathering much valuable fnformation concerning the difficulties which beset the various lines of industry. He is at present a director manufacturing plants, and is also a trustee of the Trinity Baptist Church, of which he is a member, and upon whose services he is a regular attendant when in the city.
